A Debt Not Paid by Due Bills.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The Copperhead leaders are promulgating a sophism which in effect asserts that a debt can be paid by giving the creditor a due bill. They advocate paying off the debt with greenbacks, which is precisely the same thing as a man discharging a debt with a due bill.

A greenback is a debt of the government just as much as a five-twenty bond. Let the reader take one out of his pocket-book and examine it, and he will find that it reads as follows,

WASHINGTON, D. D. ——, 186–.
The United States promises to pay $— to the bearer.
(Signed) F. E. SPINNER,
Treasurer of the United States.
L. E. CHITTENDEN, Register of the Treasury.

The legal tender attribute of the greenback in no degree alters its character as a debt of the government. When originally issued, the greenbacks were in the nature of a forced loan. Public creditors were obliged to receive them in lieu of constitutional money; but in the hands of the holders as against the government, they are nothing more than promises to pay, or "I O U's" of "Uncle Sam." A greenback is not of itself money, but simply a promise to pay money—so far as the holder and maker are concerned. The greenbacks outstanding (including compounds) constitute one-sixth part of the whole debt? The essential difference between them and bonds is, that the latter draw interest and are due on a future day, while the former draw no interest and are due now—due whenever presented for payment. When the government pays a debt with gold or silver the debt is forever discharged; but when it liquidates an obligation with greenbacks, the form of the obligation is merely changed, but the debt remains undiminished by a cent. The government can never pay off a debt by issuing its due bills, any more than an individual can. To illustrate: Suppose A owes B a note calling for $1,000, due five years hence, drawing six per cent. interest, on which he has retained an "option" allowing him to pay it at any time after one year; and when the year comes round he offers his creditor one hundred due bills of various sizes, from five cents up to fifty dollars, and tells him that if he will not receive them he shall get nothing, would that be paying A's debt? Even suppose B accepts the "shinplasters," does that either pay or reduce A's indebtedness? Don't he still owe the holder of the due-bills one thousand dollars? It is true he has escaped paying interest, but the principal still remains unpaid. His little notes are due and should be redeemed on presentation, not in other due-bills, but in money, i. e., gold or silver. If he don't redeem them on presentation, they will certainly depreciate and pass from hand to hand for less than their face. And that is exactly the case with the greenback notes of the United States. They are due but not paid. The government refuses to give interest notes (bonds) for them, and it also declines to redeem them; hence they have depreciated to seventy-one or two cents on the dollar; and at times they have been considerably less.

It is now gravely proposed by a large party to have the government pay the holders of its time notes (bonds) with due bills, which the demagogues of that party assure the public will discharge the national debt! No provision is to be made for redeeming those due-bills when presented at the door of the Treasury, not even to give the holders a time note drawing interest therefor.

Cannot even a fool perceive that the government would still owe just as much debt as before, and that a couple of billion of due bills, drawing no interest, and not payable on demand, would be almost worthless in the hands of the people? And that for every dollar of interest the government would save by this dishonest proceeding, the people would lose ten? When a man can not pay his debts on demand, the universal practice in all civilized lands is, to ask for time, and give the creditor a note drawing interest, and payable at some future day named on its face. Governments form no exception to this rule. For the government of the United States to manufacture hundreds and thousands of millions of due bills, and force them upon the holders of its time notes, i. e., bonds, would be a monstrous outrage on the public creditors, and would inflict a fatal blow on the public credit. The government would still be in debt as before, and all private credits and balances would be swamped and drowned in the flood of irredeemable shinplasters let loose on the country.

Senator Wilson on Gen. Grant.

In an article in the Independent, the Hon. Henry Wilson writes:

The Presidential contest of 1868, with its past issues, will stir the nation to its profoundest depths. The Democracy, without responsibilities, under the leadership of men of talent, tact, and experience, will put forth a gigantic effort to win back lost power. The Republican party, upon which rest grave responsibilities, has in its ranks, able, tried, and true men—civil and military—men whose names are honorably associated with the country's struggles for unity and liberty. Who among those honored men, of proved capacity and tried fidelity, shall be selected to marshal the Republican hosts to victory? Whose nomination will in advance, make the assurance of victory doubly sure? Above personal aspirations and ambitions, above local pride and attachments, above all associations and interest, there comes from the body of the three millions of Republicans to whom the success of the old cause is so dear the prompt and emphatic response "Ulysses S. Grant?" These masses see, with the clear instinct of patriotism, that the great soldier would bring into the impending contest the weight of his great name and illustrious achievements, his solid and practical judgment, his conceded integrity, his modesty that never vaunts his own deeds, and his rare magnanimity that ever gracefully recognizes the deeds of other generals, soldiers and civilians. These unselfish masses, with their practical sagacity, see that the ranks of the Republicans, in the struggle through which duty has led them, have been weakened by timidity and treachery; that their sacred cause now needs to be re-inforced, as it so often has been, by drafts from the most advanced men of the Democracy; and that the selection of Gen. Grant will rally tens of thousands to the cause their hearts love.

The military achievements of Gen. Grant are gratefully acknowledged, his administrative capacity is now conceded, and his general views of public policy commended. Earnest Republicans, however, whose fidelity to vital issues cannot be questioned, but whose distrust of public men has been quickened by the shameful treachery of men they had trusted and followed, are anxious concerning the sentiments of Gen. Grant upon those vital issues, the right settlement of which can alone bring permanent security and repose to the nation. The past and present of the Republican party and the personal integrity of Gen. Grant affords ample assurance that their and his sentiments and opinions will be distinctly avowed in the coming canvass. In the trying days of the war—in the summer of 1863—Gen. Grant wrote from his camp, on the banks of the Mississippi, to his tried friend Washburne:

"I have never been an Anti Slavery man; but I try to judge justly of what I see. I made up my mind when this war commenced that the North and South could only live together in peace as one nation, and they could only be one nation, by being a free nation. Slavery, the corner stone of the so-called Confederacy, is knocked out, and it will take more men to keep black men slaves than to put down the Rebellion. Much as I desire peace, I am opposed to any peace until the question of Slavery is forever settled."

This emphatic avowal fully committed Gen. Grant to the policy of emancipation. He was, too, for the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, declaring to his nearest friends that his defeat would be a dreadful calamity to the country. Since the close of the war he has been in accord with Congress, in its efforts to protect the loyal, black and white, secure the equal rights of all, and restore the rebels States to their practical relations. When the pending Constitutional Amendment was before Congress, he was for its submission to the people; and when it was submitted, he urged the leading men of the rebel States to vote for its adoption. After its rejection by the rebel Legislatures, he pressed Southern men, who sought his advice, to reconsider their action, adopt it, and give suffrage to the freedmen. To leading Southern men he said: "You must look to Congress, the Republicans have the power; consult them; do not seek the counsel of men in the North who opposed the war; the people will never trust that class of men with power; the more you look to them the worse, the more exacting Congress will be and ought to be; the rejection of the amendment and the legislation against the freedmen will cause Congress to require universal suffrage; and you should at once give it." Some of those men were wise enough to accept and act upon his advice. To the Reconstruction policy of Congress—the vital and over-shadowing issue of the day—Gen. Grant gave his earnest support, and he has zealously striven to carry the legislation of Congress into effect. On the Reconstruction policy Gen. Grant has been and now is in accord with Congress and the Republican party. So anxious was he to have that policy promptly carried into effect that he urgently pressed upon members of Congress the vital importance of so arranging the adjournments as to be able to meet at any time, should the needs of the country require it.

Political Revelations.

HOW A. J. SEDUCED RAYMOND INTO ATTENDING THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION—HOW RAYMOND WAS DECEIVED AND CAJOLED—A. J. ON THE DISLOYAL DEMOCRACY.

Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Times, has finally been goaded into the publication of a long letter, in the effort to explain why he figured so conspicuously in the Philadelphia Copperhead Convention of 1866. His defense is similar to that presented by Father Adam at the time of the fall, only Andrew Johnson and Seward were the serpents that tempted him. Following is the gist of his "explanation."

I declined, therefore, to be a candidate for the convention, and consented finally to go into it only at the earnest personal representation of the President and Secretary of State. I gave them, as my reason for not wishing to go, the certainty that under the call the convention would be in the hands of men who in the South had been in the rebellion, and who in the North had opposed the war; that it would be hostile in temper and in principle to the Union party, of which I was not only a member, but in which I held an official position, that I could not consent to act against its interests.

To this they replied, that if the members of the Union party refused to take part in the convention, it would necessarily fall into hostile hands, and be used by the Democratic party to endorse its principles and its fortunes; but they were confident if Republican friends of the Administration would go into the convention, they would guide its action and secure its adoption of national, Union and Republican principles, as they had been affirmed by the Baltimore convention of 1864, and carried out by President Lincoln. President Johnson said he was very anxious that the convention should not be left to enure to the benefit of the Democratic party. He knew that party thoroughly—it had been disloyal to the government while engaged in war, and did not enjoy or deserve the confidence of the people. The Union party, which had carried the country through the war, was the party to restore the country now the war was over. He thought the leaders in Congress were going to extremes, and were entering upon a policy which would prevent the effective extension of the party to Southern States, and that a convention of this sort, which would demonstrate the readiness of Southern men to accept the principles of the Union party, would have a good effect upon the party itself, and lead to the adoption of more moderate counsels, and put an end to the sectional character of political parties. He said he wanted the convention to take precisely the ground which I had taken in a speech made a few days before in Congress on restoration and the Union party, every word of which met his approval; and he felt quite sure that if I would go into the convention, and write an address embracing those views, it would be promptly and heartily indorsed by the convention.

These views were strongly pressed by both the President and Mr. Seward in a conversation which lasted for an hour. I asked them if it was designed or desired to lay the foundation for a new political party. The President said, certainly not; the Union party, purified of the extreme doctrines of its extreme men, and adhering to the conservative constitutional ground it had always held, was the party which ought to rule the country and restore the Union; and, if it would act wisely in this matter, it could retain power and administer the government for twenty-five years to come. I asked if it was desired that the convention should support or aid in any way the success of the Democratic party in the coming elections. The President said, certainly not, as a party. All that he desired was that the convention should exert a strong moral influence upon the Union party, and induce the nomination and election to Congress of moderate men who were for restoring the Union on constitutional principles, and who would admit Southern men into Congress provided they could take the oath required by law. It was only in cases where the Republicans should nominate extreme Radicals, that he should desire the election of Democrats in their stead.

I told the President I could not refuse to do anything in my power to aid an object which, as he had represented it, seemed so just and desirable, and that I would go into the convention, if elected, and prepare an address for its consideration—with this understanding—that if the convention did not take the ground indicated, but fell under the control of rebels and copperheads, I should bolt. "Certainly," he replied, "and so I hope will every friend I have in it."

I think you may very easily infer from this what I, at all events, "had in view," in going into the Philadelphia convention. It had been called, and was certain to be held. It was likely to be imposing and influential, and certain to aid either the Democratic party by taking the ground it had held, or the Union party by advocating its principles and acquiescing in its policy. I thought I should be rendering the Union party a service by trying to bring about the latter result. I thought that the convention would be a powerful agent in nationalizing the Union party—in securing for its essential and vital principles a strong support in the Southern States, and in thus restoring the time when political parties were not divided by lines of latitude, but when both parties had strong support in every State.

Mr. Stanton's Return to the War Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 14.—The principal subject of conversation to-day in political circles was the War Office business. General Grant appeared at the office soon after nine o'clock, spent a few minutes there, locked the door of the private room, put the key in his pocket and at once returned to the army headquarters on the opposite side of the street. Mr. Stanton arrived at the department about ten o'clock and waited in the ante-room, receiving the congratulations of several friends gathered there, while an officer on duty went over to the headquarters to get the key. He came back with this, and, by General Grant's directions, delivered it to Adjutant General Townsend, chief officer in the building in the absence of the head of the department, who handed it over to Mr. Stanton. Being thus in the possession of the key of the office, Stanton unlocked the door and then resumed his duties as Secretary of War. The first business he did was to receive a delegation of gentlemen from Tennessee, who called to urge the Secretary, whom they supposed on entering to be General Grant, to continue the Freedmen's Bureau in their State until summer. Mr. Stanton heard them through, and then said they would have to excuse him from giving an order in the premises for a short time, as he had been absent from the office for a few days, and would have to look into the situation. General Grant withdrew his Adjutant General from the department in the course of the morning, and the former Adjutant of Mr. Stanton entered upon his duties at noon. The General himself called at the department just before 12 o'clock, passed in Mr. Stanton's room, and was closeted with him for half or three-quarters of an hour. Mr. Stanton remained in the office all the afternoon, and was called on by many friends. When not with them he was engaged in looking over papers on his table, and in transacting the usual routine business of the day. He did not go to the White House, though it was Cabinet day. General Pope was with him for some time. When he left the office at four o'clock, he gave his customary directions to the clerks and messengers, and then went over to headquarters, whence he rode with General Grant to the house of the latter.

The following letter, drawn up by Judge Lawrence, of Ohio, was circulated in the House for signatures and sent to Mr. Stanton this afternoon. All to whom it was presented signed it except Logan, Banks and Cary.

WASHINGTON Jan 14, 1868.
To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

"We respectfully request you to continue as Secretary of War, and not resign. J. N. DOLPH,
Chairman Union State Central Committee.
Portland, January 27th, 1868.

Meeting of the Union State Central Committee.

Quite a number of the members of the Union State Central Committee reached this city yesterday, to be present at the meeting appointed for to-day. The difficulty of communication with the counties east of the mountains, which it was hoped would be removed by this time, still continues, [illegible] members are present from that section. In [illegible] of the drawbacks which have so far been [illegible], it is expected that measures will be at [illegible] instituted for a vigorous political campaign.

The War Office Imbroglio.

Johnson's accusations against Grant amount to [illegible] and no less than a violent tirade against the General because he declined to be made a tool of the Executive to be used for the purpose of defeating a law of Congress. Grant charges, and the testimony is that he was determined to keep Stanton out regardless of the law. He confesses, [illegible], that he appointed Grant to the office for that sole purpose, and is deeply chagrined because his device did not succeed. The more the whole matter is developed, the more clearly does it appear that Johnson attempted to involve Grant in [illegible] law, for which he himself "hesitated to [illegible] responsibility." If otherwise, why did he not relieve Grant of the office weeks before, and send to the Senate the nomination of Stanton's successor? The Senate had been in session for two months; if the Executive had desired to act with openness and candor in the matter, why did he not entirely ignore Stanton and proceed in the [illegible] as if the office had been vacated in the regular way? He held that the suspension of Stanton left the office vacant, but he had not [illegible] to act on his theory. His design was to keep Grant between him and danger, and he is [illegible] and angered by the failure of his unworthy stratagem.

It is evident from the course which Johnson has [illegible] that he has a right appreciation of the [illegible] which the country places upon him. He [illegible] deference to the opinion which is [illegible] entertained regarding the credibility of his [illegible], by getting his Secretaries to vouch for the truth of his assertions. In other words, he [illegible] considers his own testimony of no [illegible] such as he deems it necessary to have [illegible] endorsed by his Cabinet before submitting it to the country. He thus pays himself the compliment to acknowledge the correctness of the general opinion that what he says is not to be [illegible].

In his raging wrath, Johnson upbraids Grant [illegible], as he alleges, he "induced the Executive to suppose that he would keep Stanton out of the office by retaining it himself, and thus require Stanton to appeal to the Courts;" or, in case he should [illegible] to hold the office longer, he "would [illegible] it to the President before Stanton was [illegible]." This is the matter about which a question of veracity is raised between them. Grant fully admitted, in the first instance, that this agreement was made, and he insists that he has faithfully adhered to his part of the obligation. When the Senate took up the case of Stanton's suspension, he went to the President to make his intention to retire from the office known. That he did make it known, Johnson does not deny. Grant informed the President in the most explicit terms that "if the Senate refused to sustain the suspension of Stanton, his own powers as Secretary of War ad interim would [illegible]." This statement Johnson does not meet, and it may therefore be accepted as undeniably [illegible]. But he obtains the signatures of his Secretaries to the agreement which was made in Cabinet meeting, undertakes to suppress the fact that Grant told him in a subsequent interview that he would retire from the office (thus fulfilling his [illegible]), and then parading the statement in [illegible] by his Secretaries, assumes that he has convicted Grant of duplicity in the transaction! Johnson puts entirely out of sight the fact that Grant fulfilled his promise in the matter of making his intention of retiring from the office known, the only point on which Grant relies, and really the only point about which a question of veracity has been raised; and attempts to obscure the whole subject, give a wrong impression about it by a [illegible] declamation, denunciatory language, [illegible] assumptions and false inferences. The letter of Johnson, with the endorsements of the five members of the Cabinet, does not meet the main point in issue, and therefore Grant may content himself with what he has already said on that part of the subject. But in his reply he [illegible] and refutes the charge of insubordination, and shows that in recognizing the Secretary of War, he has done no more than has been done by Johnson's pet Secretaries, McCulloch and Randall.

It is altogether improbable to suppose that Grant would have stated the case so strongly as he did in his letters to Johnson had he not fully and sincerely believed he was in the right in his version of what passed between them. Nor would he have been so ready to have the correspondence given to the country, had he not been perfectly assured of the rectitude of his intentions in the whole transaction. No man who has been playing a double part in a matter of so much moment would court investigation and boldly challenge exposure. Had not Grant been perfectly sure that he was right, had he been conscious of having acted a dishonorable part, his efforts would have been directed to concealing his agency in it, instead of taking a course which would open the whole matter to searching scrutiny. It is very evident, from what we see of this business so far, that, in the first place, Johnson endeavored to use Grant as an instrument to defeat a law which he himself had not the courage to resist, and failing in this design, he now attempts, by adroit misrepresentations, which he uses in such a manner as to give them the color of facts, to destroy Grant's character before the country. But Grant has been before the country for years in the most prominent and responsible positions, and no man has been able to say a word against his integrity. Even the Copperhead Democracy were accustomed to speak of him in terms of praise until it became apparent that he was supported the Government during the great rebellion were looking to him as the next President, when they changed their tactics and began their work of defamation. As for Johnson, he is not a man who is able to injure the character of any one. Were his power in this respect equal to his malignancy, the hot and terrible breath of his [illegible] would wither all the laurels that were won in the service of the country during the most trying period of its history.

More Usurpation.

The Salem Chronicle, a paper from which we occasionally get some extracts which have the flavor of genuine Democracy, in a late issue gives the following:

Before starting on his return to Washington, Senator Williams promised certain Republicans in this part of Oregon, that, if thought advisable by them, he would introduce a law and see that it passed Congress, postponing our State election till the Presidential election in November. It may be thought by some that this would be a usurpation on the part of Congress, in that a State law is set at naught. But this movement finds a parallel in the enactment by Congress of the Civil Rights law, which abrogates the Constitution and laws of this State quite as essentially as the Senator's proposition to postpone our State election would do.

As a Congressman is the only officer to be voted for by the State at large in the June election, and as nobody was ever fool to suppose that Congress would attempt to fix the time for the election of State or county officers in any State, the Chronicle no doubt refers to the proposed postponement of the election for Congressman. Now if this had appeared in the Herald, we would have set it down, as usual, to the account of the editor's ignorance, and there let it rest. But we must express our surprise in finding a journal of the Chronicle's intelligence and ability,—using these words of course in a Democratic sense and as comparative terms,—making such statements. But we will endeavor to relieve the Chronicle's mind a little on this point, by showing that the proposed law would not be so great a usurpation as certain jealous, anti-consolidation Democrats might suppose. At any rate, we shall show that the proposed measure has excellent Democratic endorsement. In his last annual message to Congress, President Buchanan said: "I again recommend the passage of a law, in pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution, appointing a day previous to the 4th of March in each year of an odd number for the election of Representatives throughout all the States. A similar power has already been exercised, with general approbation, in the appointment of the same day throughout the Union for holding the election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States." The constitutional provision to which Buchanan referred, is the fourth section of the fourth article, which declares that "the times, places and manner of holding elections for Senators and Representatives shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing Senators." We hope the Chronicle and its friends will now feel relieved on this score, as well as in regard to the Civil Rights Law, which that paper declares is a monstrosity of usurpation equal to this attempt to "set a State law at naught" by postponing our election for Congressman.

The Democratic outcry about "Congressional usurpation" is well illustrated by an incident which recently took place in the California Legislature. We copy from a paper of that State:

The incurable ignorance on which so called Democracy feeds and flourishes was illustrated in the Assembly on Thursday. In the debate on the Mining College proposition, a member, anxious to distinguish himself for the soundness of his Democratic doctrine, suggested that the privileges of that institution be limited to "male white citizens." He said the necessity for this amendment would be especially apparent to every Democrat, "because the Civil Rights bill, which had been spawned upon the country by Congress not long ago, made citizens of negroes and Chinamen, and he believed that women, too, were made citizens." Now one who is a legislator himself may perhaps be a judge whether the process of enacting a law bears any particular resemblance to the fishy operation referred to. But there is something extremely ungallant, to say the least, in the inconsiderate way in which women are placed upon the same footing as Chinese and negroes, and denied even the rights of citizenship. It is apparent, especially to every one not a Democrat, that more than half the opposition offered to the Civil Rights bill is due to dense ignorance of its purport and effect. Here is a Democratic legislator who believes that women were "made citizens" by that enactment! Those whom he represents may reasonably be supposed to know even less than himself what constitutes citizenship. It is apparent, indeed, that the mass of Democrats believe that to be a citizen is to be a voter, and that the intention of the Civil Rights bill was to extend the suffrage!

From this it would appear that the Democratic party in Oregon and in California, are on about the same level of intelligence. There is no wonder that the struggle against such a party is an arduous one. It is like a struggle against the powers of darkness.

REVENUE FRAUDS.—Gen. Logan, one of the members of the Ways and Means Committee in the House, in a late speech on revenue frauds, said that these frauds would not be stopped so long as Andrew Johnson was appointing thieves. He mentioned the case of a man named McDonald, who had been convicted and sentenced to death for being a rebel conspirator, in burning hotels in New York, and who since had been appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury to an office in New York. The revenue was not collected in many districts in the country, because Andrew Johnson's pets were put in office there, or Republicans who were willing to sell themselves to A. Johnson for the opportunity of perpetrating frauds upon the country. Andrew Johnson had appointed a class of men who had disgraced the nation, and upon him and upon the Secretary of the Treasury the responsibility for all these frauds rested. To this the Chicago Tribune adds:

With the class of appointments which Johnson and McCulloch have made, how is it possible to have the revenue honestly collected? One of the special revenue agents in this city is a "Knight of the Golden Circle," or "Son of Liberty." During the war he was an active leader among the "Knights" in this city who met to plot treason in an upper story of McCormick's building. He was engaged in the plot to liberate the Camp Douglas prisoners and burn and plunder the city. He advocated assassination of those opposed to the rebellion, and wanted to have a fire in the rear opened on the Union army. When some of these things began to leak out he fled the city, but in the course of a year or two, he sneaked back to Chicago, and is now rewarded by Moses with a revenue agency. This is the class of chaps who are being appointed by the President to collect revenue, and keep it, as a reward for their past and present Copperhead services.

The Daily Forum of Salem has suspended publication. It promises to resume when it receives a supply of paper. The Record says "it had too much editorial talent and died of a surfeit." There is a Democratic paper in these parts that will never die from such a cause.

REFUSAL TO REMIT A FINE.—The application of Hyman Bros to the Commissioner, for a remission of their fine—in one of the match cases of last summer—was returned not granted, the answer being received here yesterday. The fine amounts to $300 and costs.

STOCK IN YAMHILL.—Information received in this city from residents of Yamhill is to the effect that but little loss of stock has occurred to farmers of ordinary foresight and prudence. Only the habitually improvident have suffered in this way.

The New York Herald, in an editorial article, says: "Make General Grant President upon the theory that everything is to be left to his judgment, and he is to be the representative of no definite political principles, and the power of the Radicals will remain just as predominant as it is now."

The Johnson-Grant Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The President to-day transmitted to Congress [illegible] Grant a letter of the [illegible] and [illegible] of the five members of the Cabinet present at the session of [illegible] in relation to the [illegible] of January. The President's letter is quite long and pretty bitter against Grant. It was certainly a doubt that from the time he accepted the War Office ad interim he intended to circumvent the President. It was to carry out that intent that he accepted the appointment and not in obedience to the orders of his superior as has heretofore been supposed. The President says: At the time you assumed the duties of the office you knew that it was the President's purpose to prevent Stanton from assuming the office of Secretary of War, and you undertake to defeat that purpose. You accept the office not in the interest of the President but of Stanton. If this purpose, so intended by you, had been confined to yourself when accepting the office, it would have been with a mental reservation to frustrate the President. It would have been deception in the eyes of some persons, such a case is allowable, but you cannot stand fairly upon this question as legal ground. The history of your connection with this transaction as written by yourself places you in a different predicament, and shows that you not only concealed your design from the President, but induced him to suppose you would carry out his purpose to keep Stanton out of office by retaining it yourself after an attempted restoration by the Senate, and thus require Stanton to establish his right by judicial decision.

The President proceeds to quote Grant's language admitting that he agreed to hold the office until the court adjudicated upon the matter, or to surrender it to the President before Stanton was reinstated. He says: At the last of this conversation you told the President that you would hold the office for the purpose of keeping Stanton into court, but you did hold it then and had accepted it to prevent that course. In other words you said to the President, this is the proper course; and said to yourself, I have accepted this office and now hold it to defeat this course. The President goes on animadverting upon Grant's direct refusal to the only [illegible] directing him not to recognize orders issued by Stanton. He quotes Stanton's letter of the 4th inst., admitting that he had received no orders from the President nor held any communication with the executive. He adds: It thus seems that Mr. Stanton now discharges the duties of the War Department without any reference to the President and without using his name. My order to you had only reference to orders assumed to be issued by the President. The President orders you not to obey any order purporting to be made by the direction of the President until you have referred it to him for approval. You reply that you have received the President's order and will not obey it, but will obey any order purporting to be given by his direction, if it comes from the War Department. You will obey no direct order of the President but will obey his indirect orders. If, as you say, there has been a practice in the War Department to issue orders in the name of the President without his direction, the President does not know it. The present order which you have requested and received will change the practice. The President concludes by reproaching Grant for insubordination. The letters appended are from the Secretaries of State, of the Interior, the Navy, the Treasury and the Postmaster General, sustaining the President's statement of the conversation with Grant in the Cabinet meeting on January 14th.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Grant's reply to the President is brief. It relates only to the charge of insubordination in refusing to disobey orders issued by Stanton. He said he did not propose to disobey any legal orders of the President, but only gave an interpretation of what he would regard as satisfactory evidence of the President's sanction to orders from the Secretary of War. He incloses a copy of an order from the Secretary of War directing him to furnish an escort for public treasure from the Rio Grande to New Orleans, issued on application of the Secretary of the Treasury to him, showing the recognition of Stanton as Secretary of War, both by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General. He concludes again by disclaiming any intention of disobeying the President's orders when distinctly communicated.

The State Department has authentic information of rumors of impending war in Guatemala and Mexico being without foundation.

The Senate rejected the nomination of Bishop as Commissioner of Patents and Leslie Coombs as Marshal of Kentucky.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Washington specials say that the prospects of impeachment are fading away. The Senate Judiciary Committee are opposed to Edmunds' bill regulating the proceedings in case of impeachment, or providing for the suspension of an officer after articles have been presented. With out this bill it is generally considered of no use to impeach the President.

Jerry Black is preparing another case to test the validity of the reconstruction acts. It proposes to proceed against Gen. Meade for using money from the Treasury of Georgia.

Southern News.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 11.—After a stormy debate the convention adopted a resolution allowing members and employees thirty per cent. additional pay.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 11.—The Convention has adopted a constitution as a whole, without being printed, after a five hours debate. It provides for twenty Senators and eighty Representatives. The executive officers are to be elected for four years. The people are to elect four Supreme Judges. The Governor shall appoint a Chief Justice for a term of eight years. It compels three months attendance at school, annually, without distinction of color, enfranchises the negro and disfranchises all who vote against the constitution, and provides for an election for the adoption of the constitution, March thirteenth. The Convention will adjourn Thursday.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 11.—The majority portion of the Convention had a session to-day and expelled Billings. Several members of the minority have passed an ordinance to issue bonds to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars, to pay the expenses of the Convention.

Capital Punishment in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 11.—The House has passed a bill leaving capital punishment for murder to the discretion of the jury.

Nicaragua Transit Scheme.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Advices from Nicaragua announce the failure of Webb's negotiations for a new transit through that country, on agreeing to pay $20,000 from the old Central American Transit Company. Webb demanded the exclusive use of the transit, which was refused. This ends the Nicaragua transit. The terms are to be negotiated by the Government with Colonel Wood, for a new railroad concession.

Farragut's Fleet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The Herald's Constantinople special says the United States steamer Ticonderoga, with nine guns, has arrived on the coast of Crete, under special orders from Farragut. It is also believed the remainder of Farragut's squadron will be stationed in the Grecian Archipelago.

From the West Indies.

HAVANA, Feb. 11.—President Cabral of St. Domingo, has fallen from power and abandoned the Capital. Gen. Hurgius has assumed the reins of Government. Many Mexicans have arrived from France.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Incorporated 1842.

CASH ASSETS	$23,000,000 00
ANNUAL INCOME OVER	6,000,000 00
CASH DIVIDEND FOR 1867	2,124,000 75

THE MUTUAL DOES A CASH BUSINESS ONLY AND HAS NO NOTES!

What a Note Company says:

"We recommend the CASH plan as the best mode of Insurance. None will deny this after a few years' experience with the note system."—The Charter Oak Life Insurance Co. (a Note Company).

EXPERIENCE has taught business men that CREDITS must be paid for.

IN CASH COMPANIES. The first payment is the largest, every succeeding year reduces the premium or increases the policy at the option of the insured. Post records of the Mutual prove that in 17 years their payments cease, but DIVIDENDS continue for life.

IN NOTE COMPANIES. The first payment is the smallest. Interest on Notes swallow Dividends and increase the future payments.

OBSERVE. Notes must be paid for by higher rates and increased interest.

DIVIDENDS. The Mutual declares Dividends the first at [illegible] the date of a policy. [illegible] The public should ascertain from other Insurance Companies if Dividends are declared annually from the start, or annually 4 YEARS AFTER Insurance.

RATES in the Mutual are lower than in any other Company doing business on the Pacific Coast—and are lower than in any Note Company.

EVERY ADVANTAGE is offered by The Mutual—(excepting notes)—that other Insurance Companies can offer.

THE MUTUAL

IS THE OLDEST AND LARGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The Common Council met on Wednesday evening, February 12th, 1868, Mayor Chapman in the chair.

The Board was called to order and the roll called by the Clerk. Present—Councilmen Burch, Fechheimer, Hallock, Porter, and Rosenheim—. Absent—Hosser, McCraken, Mulkey and Ripley —4.

The minutes of February 5th were read by the Clerk and approved.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

The following bills were read in their order and ordered paid: Milwain & Joynt for labor and material, $7 50; J. H. Butler, for cleaning and taking care of the Auditor's office and committee room, $6 00; Herald for publishing ordinances, $49 00; C. H. Myers, for labor and material furnished for Council Chamber, $10 00; C. H. Majors, for labor and material for repairing city jail, $3 50; also, C. A. Stewart, on street contract, $80 25, as certified by the committee on Streets and Public Property, was paid.

BUSINESS ON THE TABLE.

A report of the committee on Streets and Public Property on the Railroad Ordinance, was, on motion of Councilman Porter, taken from the table and indefinitely postponed.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance introduced by Councilman Fechheimer providing for the levying of a special tax of 2½ mills per cent to carry out the provisions of the Railroad Ordinance, No. 468, was read first, second and third times, and on motion the rules were suspended, and passed by a unanimous vote.

An ordinance introduced by Councilman Hallock to amend section 4 of ordinance No. 198 and increasing the salary of the City Auditor and Clerk to eighteen hundred dollars per annum, to take effect January 1st, 1868, was read first and second times, and on motion, the rules were suspended, read a third time and passed by a unanimous vote of the Board.

ENGROSSED ORDINANCES.

An ordinance appropriating and making an additional assessment of $62 50 for the improvement of Second street, from A to Madison street, and transferring the said sum of $62 50 to the Surplus Fund, and amount to be returned to the property owners assessed for the improvement, was read a third time and passed.

And upon motion of Councilman Hallock, the Auditor was instructed to draw warrants in favor of the several owners assessed, for the amount of surplus funds to which they were entitled.

A resolution offered by Councilman Hallock, directing the Treasurer to transfer the sum of $1[illegible] from the River to the Street Fund to correct an error made in 1865, was read and adopted.

Adjourned.

FROM ASTORIA.—By the kindness of Capt. Fisher of the Ranger we have a letter from Astoria from which we collate the following items, it being too late to publish the letter entire.

The bark Alma, Capt. Freeman, arrived at Astoria on the 10th of January, with merchandise from San Francisco for Portland, discharged at Astoria, loaded with lumber at Young's Mill and sailed for San Francisco on the 8th inst.... The bark Occident, Capt. Simpson, from San Francisco, arrived at Astoria on the 24th and has been waiting since for an opportunity to go to Portland.

...On the morning of the 4th of February, James Ouhuck, an Indian, was found dead in the street in this place. The Coroner took his remains in charge and held an inquest, the conclusion of which was that he came to his death by the use of a very common beverage known as the commonest kind of rot gut whisky.—The community here was startled by the news of two men being killed and another shot through the body, but living when last heard from. All done at Chinook, a little town situated opposite to and in sight of Astoria, on the Washington Territory shore. It is well known that the reckless taking of life at Chinook has been too common. The last tragedy that took place was on the night of the 28th of January. The parties concerned were named McNames, Preble, Welch and Van Vorst. The many different reports concerning the affray and killing, I refrain from stating, out of respect for the dead as well as justice to the survivor, Van Vorst. The most reliable report seems to be that the shooting arose from some previous difficulty between the parties, and [illegible] at Preble's house the shooting commenced between them. McNames shot Preble dead, and Preble shot Welch, though he is still living, and Van Vorst shot McNames dead. From what I can learn, Van Vorst shot in self-defence. He is now under arrest. The fight was about a squaw. The examination will take place soon, which will throw something reliable on the dreadful and most unfortunate taking of life.

FURIOUS RUNAWAY.—A team belonging to Zahnizer's Tannery ran away, down Front Street, yesterday, in about as dashing style as that sort of thing is ever got up. The driver, who was perched upon a high box, in the wagon, was driving at a rather rapid rate down Taylor Street and when just turning into Front, one of the fore-wheels struck an obstruction, and instantly, the driver was thrown off the wagon, striking the ground upon his face and shoulders, receiving some severe scratches and bruises. The team being now unrestrained, off they went down the street without regard to the ordinance forbidding fast driving, or their own safety, or that of the persons, animals and vehicles in the street. Just in front of the What Cheer House, some workmen had dug a deep trench nearly across the street, in the work of repairing water pipes. The horses leaped this ditch, but the fore wheels of the wagon went into it, stopping the wagon, breaking the tongue square off and freeing the horses from everything except harness and doubletrees. With these flying high and wildly, the horses ran the whole length of Front Street, scattering foot passengers and everything else which felt like getting out of harm's way. Mr. Dougherty's dray was run into and damaged to the extent of a few dollars. This was the only harm done, except the injury to the driver and a general splintering of the doubletrees attached to the runaway horses.

A DRAY RUNS AWAY WITH A HORSE.—When Zahnizer's team ran into Mr. Dougherty's dray, yesterday, the collision did some damage to the latter, and to the harness by [illegible] the dray horse's belly-band. A few moments afterward Mr. Dougherty started down the street, when some one who knew nothing of the disability of the harness, jumped upon the rear end of the dray. Of course the rear end went down and the shafts went up. The [illegible] found himself thus suddenly [illegible] was disposed to go it alone and began to make demonstrations as though he didn't care a flip for regular business. Mr. Dougherty couldn't see it in that light and held on to the reins. The horse of course, checked and backed, the dray, on the rear end of which Mr. Dougherty still clung ran forward. The result was that in a moment the greater part of the dray was on the horse, and for a few seconds it was very doubtful whether it would succeed in running away with the animal, in spite of the united efforts of Dougherty and his horse. The ready assistance of several spectators, however, soon relieved the driver, horse and dray from the unusual and uncomfortable mixture into which they had got, and reduced things to their normal condition.

FROM THE COLUMBIA RIVER.—A telegram was received from Martin's Bluff yesterday morning, stating that the river opposite that place was clear of ice, and as far as could be seen up and down. Everybody at once took it for granted that the river was clear, all the way to Rainier, and considerable excitement at once spread through the city. The excitement increased when it became known, later that the Ranger had been down to Astoria and had brought up the Oriflamme's passengers, and was on her way with them to Portland. The Ranger and the break up of the ice was the universal themes of conversation for the remainder of the day. Her arrival at about half past eight in the evening created more stir and sensation than are often seen at the arrival of an ocean steamer. Only a portion of the passengers came up on her, it being considered very doubtful when she left Astoria whether she could get through to this city. Those who remained will come up on the Okanagan.

COLUMBIA RIVER ITEMS.—Capt. Fisher, of the Ranger, gives us the following items concerning matters down the Columbia. The Ranger towed the Occident up twenty miles and then towed her back to Astoria, on account of the ice. None of the lumber mills of the lower Columbia are running. The river is still closed with ice above the mouth of the Slough. The Brewster was to sail from Rainier yesterday afternoon. The Ranger brought up 35 passengers among whom were Messrs. Cooke, McCully, Put. Smith and others with ladies, and several members of the Washington Territory Legislature who had been stopping at Monticello. The Occident has been in the river twenty days. ...The schooner Cosly from Victoria is at Astoria, has been in three or four days.

THE PORTLAND AND VANCOUVER ROAD SCHEME.—Mr. Schaeben circulated among the property holders of Front street, yesterday, the petition to the County court for the improvement of the road from East Portland to Switzler's Landing, by planking, grading, etc. Last evening we were shown the list of signatures obtained and find that it contains the names of nearly all the heavy taxpayers of Front street from Washington street down. Mr. Schaeben says he found only one gentleman who objected—everybody else to whom the matter was presented being in favor of the scheme. He thinks he could obtain a thousand names in two or three days if necessary.

CIRCUIT COURT.—UPTON, JUDGE.—The following proceedings were had in the Circuit court yesterday:

John H. Eagan vs Charles Hopkins and wife; action to enforce mechanic's lien; claim for $350; jury empaneled and evidence submitted.

Jane Graham vs David Graham; suit for divorce; plaintiff granted divorce from said defendant and allowed to assume her maiden name—Jane Carter.

Grand Jury presented one indictment.

L. F. Mosher vs A. G. Bradford; verdict of Jury for defendant, costs against plaintiff.

FOR ASTORIA.—The steamer Okanagan left this city at 12 M. yesterday, for Astoria, in consequence of the news of a break up of the ice in the Columbia. A telegram from Martin's Bluff announced last evening that she passed that point at twenty minutes past four P. M. The Ranger having [illegible] passed that place from below the [illegible] the passage to Astoria being [illegible]. The Okanagan [illegible] up a portion of the [illegible] landed there by the Oriflamme in January.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE FAIR.—The Catholic Fair for the [illegible] of the orphans in the care of the Sisters of the Holy Names will open at the Elno Hall at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day. Contributions will be received and arranged during the afternoon.

PERSONAL.—Among the passengers by the Ranger from Astoria last evening were Mr. F. N. Cockerell and wife, Mr. D. M. C[illegible] and daughters of Salem and several [illegible]. They were all excellent [illegible] having found [illegible] from their long [illegible] confinement. A [illegible] landed at the boat at her landing, and greeted the new arrivals as though they were long [illegible] friends. The Salem people all go [illegible] this morning for the Capitol.

MEETING OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The County Judge and Commissioners held a regular meeting yesterday [illegible] the ordinary business. The following [illegible] supervisors were appointed: [illegible].

GRANT CLUB AT OSWEGO.—We are informed that a meeting of the citizens of Oswego precinct has been called to meet at [illegible] P. M. on Saturday the 15th, for the purpose of organizing a Grant Club, and that [illegible] will be present and address the assembly [illegible] the political issues of the times.

STEAMER FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—On the strength of the news of the ice breaking up at Martin's Bluff Mr. Wells telegraphed in the afternoon to San Francisco for the steamer to sail. [illegible] will therefore leave this morning [illegible] may be expected to arrive Saturday [illegible].

ON THE WAY HOME.—We learn that Mr. [illegible], an old resident and merchant of this city, who has been absent in the East for several months, is expected to arrive at home by the next steamer, but [illegible] he having sailed from New York Jan. 21st.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—DEADY, JUSTICE.—This court opened yesterday morning when no business being ready owing to the engagements of the attorneys in the Circuit court for Multnomah county, the Court adjourned.

PRODUCE.—Arrived from Oregon City yesterday, per steamer Alert, [illegible] sacks wheat, 207 sacks oats, 20 sacks barley, [illegible] boxes apples, 25 boxes eggs, 4 [illegible] hogs and 2 packages merchandise.

SOIREE TO-NIGHT.—Prof. Cardinell's soiree will come off this evening at his hall, No. 140 First street. The well established reputation the Professor has obtained in getting up these agreeable entertainments generally ensures a large attendance. He informs us that the floor of the dancing hall is now in splendid condition.

LOST.—Charley Ziegler, at the landing of the Ranger last evening, lost a watch guard with silver buckle and seal in the shape of a horse. It is hoped the finder will return it to him at the Western Hotel, as it was a gift to Charley.

THE RANGER.—This steamer will leave for Astoria at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

MESSAGE.—There is a message at the telegraph office for David Rantz, Sr.

Protection Engine Company No. 4.—The adjourned meeting will be held this (Thursday) eve at 7 o'clock. JAMES BENNETT, Sec'y

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS.

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer, but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands [illegible] all the great catalogue of Family Medicines [illegible]. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive only after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD

GROB'S
MUSICAL AND EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE!
ALSO,
DAY & BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS INSTITUTE IS SITUATED IN A RETIRED and beautiful location, away from the business portion of the city, on Third, between B and C Sts., Portland, Oregon.

Attached to the building are extensive and beautiful grounds for the convenience of pupils.

The Educational Department will be in charge of an efficient corps of Teachers, CAPT. J. P. C. ALLSOPP (formerly a Professor in the University of [illegible] and for the last five years Principal of a Collegiate Institute in the Southern part of California) Principal.

No effort will be spared to make this Institute equal to the best on the Pacific Coast. The Course of Studies will embrace all the branches usually taught in first-class Seminaries in the East, including the Classics, French, German, Spanish, Mathematics, &c., &c.

The Musical Department will be conducted by PROF. H. GUIDO GROB, Graduate of [illegible] Conservatory.

Parties from the country may rest assured that under the care of MRS. GROB (Matron of the Establishment) they will receive all the attention of a mother and every other comfort of a home.

N. B.—Particular attention will be paid to the choice of Text Books in order to avoid anything of a Sectional or Political nature in the curriculum of studies.

For further particulars enquire at the Institute or address H. GUIDO GROB, P. O. Box No. 158.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fever; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels. Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

FROM T. M. GATCH, PRINCIPAL OF THE PORTLAND ACADEMY AND FEMALE SEMINARY:

"Having lately had an opportunity of becoming somewhat acquainted with the workings of this Institution, I unhesitatingly recommend it to all who wish to secure a practical business education in the shortest time and with the least expense. The idea of going from Oregon to California to attend a Commercial School is simply absurd.

"It is my opinion that pupils instructed by Messrs. LAUDEN and DEFRANCE receive greater attention than those of any other Commercial College on the coast, and this I say without wishing to detract from the usefulness of schools I have visited in San Francisco."

TO THE UNFORTUNATE

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing), and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, are that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them to delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurance of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the Inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and as confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baker, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT!

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURCHASED the "UNION BOOK & JOB PRINTING OFFICE," of T. F. McElroy, propose to issue a Weekly Newspaper at Olympia, W. T., on or about the 1st of December next, to be called THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT.

The paper will be devoted to the Agricultural, Mechanical, Commercial, Mineral, Moral and Political interests of the whole Territory.

In Politics we shall uphold and sustain the Union Principles of the Nation, at the same time reserving the right to be INDEPENDENT on all subjects, that we may be better able to discuss all matters in their true light, and give credit wherever it is due.

We trust our friends will circulate this prospectus generally, and assist us in getting a good list of Subscribers, Advertisements, or Job Work. We also invite correspondence from all sections of the Territory.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT will be issued every Saturday, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Hoping to receive a share of public favor, we submit our banner to the breeze.

REDINGTON & CO'S ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER

This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at wholesale by REDINGTON & CO., Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco. je24d7m4p

STOP THAT COUGHING

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE designed, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by the surprising curative powers of

NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects, entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

Certificates from many prominent citizens of San Francisco accompany every bottle of

NEWELL'S Pulmonary Syrup

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motive, but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs; languishing feelings, loss of muscular power; nervousness; irritability; cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption; short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the mind; loss of memory; nightly emissions; colorless; slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights succeed days of depression.

It is the nature of the complaint to assume sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated, show a record unsurpassed by any hospital in the world, and the success that has invariably marked the course of treatment.

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that those poisonous drugs, by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be, "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed—consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and kind and faithful nurses.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the Interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Edes, a well known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs Jane E. Rice, a well-known and esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of N. C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.
